General Information and Regulations

Advanced Placement and College Credit
Students wishing to obtain college credit by means of the Advanced Placement program (AP), the College Level Examination Program (CLEP), or the International Baccalaureate Program (IB) should consult the information provided by the Office of Admissions at West Virginia University, available online at https://admissions.wvu.edu/admissions/equivalency.

A student with at least one year of active military service may receive college-level credit by submitting a copy of his or her DD214 or a SMART or AARTS transcript.

Credit by Examination (Institutional)
After admission to Potomac State College, students may elect to take examinations demonstrating competence in specific course work.

Policies
1. The student must be enrolled at Potomac State College during the semester that the credit is being sought.
2. The student must never have been enrolled in the class after the first week of the semester. Under unusual circumstances, this requirement may be waived by the Dean of Academic Affairs in consultation with the appropriate Division Chair.
3. No student may attempt institutional credit by examination more than once for the same course.
4. The student must demonstrate a background sufficient to warrant an exam.
5. The student must attempt institutional credit by examination prior to the last day to withdraw from a class.

Courses Not Eligible for Credit by Examination: Due to their particular purposes and content, some courses may not be eligible for credit by examination at Potomac State College. These include Foundations courses and ENGL 101-102.

Procedure
1. The student must submit in writing to the appropriate Division Chair an explanation of how the competency was achieved. The Division Chair will determine if the student is eligible and whether the course is appropriate for institutional credit by examination. The Chair’s decision can be appealed in writing within five working days to the Dean of Academic Affairs.
2. The Division Chair will procure an appropriate faculty member to develop, administer, and evaluate the exam. The Chair and the faculty member share responsibility for assuring the appropriate level of difficulty of the exam. In order to pass the exam, the student must show proficiency at a level comparable to that of a student receiving a grade of C in the course.
3. Upon successful completion, the student will receive credit for the course with no letter grade designated. Institutional credit will not affect the grade point average of the student.
4. A student who believes that a non-passing grade on the exam was due to a capricious, arbitrary, or prejudiced academic evaluation or reflects discrimination based on race, color, creed, sex, or national origin, may appeal the decision. The appeal will follow the same procedure as used for the appeal of a grade.

Independent Study Classes
Independent study classes may occasionally be contracted between a student and Potomac State College when:
1. The student has achieved good academic standing (GPA of 2.0 or higher),
2. The course requested for independent study is a requirement for graduation under the student’s major, and
3a. There is no possibility of taking the course by the expected graduation date, or
   b. Unavoidable schedule conflict between required courses that are part of a sequence for which a real hardship would occur for the student to be able to complete his or her program in two years.

Independent study courses may also be contracted between a student and Potomac State College to provide enhanced educational opportunities for students enrolled in the Potomac State College Honors Program or to provide enhanced educational opportunities not regularly available to Potomac State College students.

Students should consult with their advisers. All requests for Independent study classes require the approval of the Dean of Academic Affairs.

Grading System

- A - excellent (given only to students of superior ability and attainment)
- B - good (given only to students who are well above average, but not in the highest group)
- C - fair (average for undergraduate students)
- D - poor but passing
- F - failure
- I - incomplete
- W - withdrawal from a course before the date specified in the University calendar
- WU - withdrawal from the college doing unsatisfactory work
- P - pass (see Pass/ Fail Grading below)
- X - auditor, no grade and no credit
- CR - credit but no grade
- S - satisfactory
- U - unsatisfactory (equivalent to F)
- INC - permanent incomplete
- IF - incomplete grade not removed by next regular term (computed as an F)
- UF - unforgivable F (not eligible for D/F repeat policy)
- PR - re-enroll (student’s progress in a foundations course is satisfactory but course competencies have not yet been mastered)

Pass-Fail Grading

Pass/fail grading encourages students to take elective courses not related to their degree concentrations. Pass/fail grading also facilitates grading in competency-based courses that may be an integral part of an academic program.

Student option: Any full-time student who has completed 15 hours and who has maintained a 2.0 grade-point average may take a maximum of four hours each semester or summer session on a pass/ fail basis. Any course taken on a pass/fail basis must be a free elective. Students are limited to a total of 18 hours of pass/fail credit in the collegiate career. Unless otherwise indicated, courses in the major, courses in other subjects that are required by the major, and courses taken to satisfy college requirements are excluded from pass/fail. For example, courses elected to satisfy the General Education Curriculum (GEC) or foreign language requirements may not be taken for pass/fail grading.

The grade of P does not affect the grade point average. However, any F grade affects a student’s grade point average whether it is a regular course or a pass/fail grade. A student chooses the option of pass/fail grading for a course during the registration period. Once the registration period has ended, he or she may not change the grade status in the course.
The college may designate any performance- or competency-based course as exclusively pass/fail. Courses offered only as pass/fail are not included in the maximum of eighteen hours that may be freely elected as pass/fail under the student option.

Foundations courses: Foundations courses are graded as pass/fail, but students may also receive a PR (re-enroll) grade. A grade of P or PR does not affect the grade point average, but a grade of F does.

Grade Point Average
All academic units of the University require minimum standards of scholastic quality that must be met or exceeded. To be eligible to receive a degree, a student must have a GPA of at least 2.0 at the time of graduation. GPA is based on all work for which a student received a letter grade other than W, WU, P, and PR. See D/F repeat policy, below.

Grade Points
Each letter grade has a numeric value. Grade points are based on this number value and the credit-hour value of the course.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Points</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>F</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I</td>

</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The grade point average is computed on all work for which a student registers, with the following exceptions:

- Courses with a grade of W, WU, P, PR, S, and X carry no grade value. The grade of Incomplete (I) initially carries no grade value.
- The grade of I is given when the instructor of the course believes that the work is unavoidably incomplete or that an additional examination is justified. There must be a written contract between the student and instructor, including a timeline for completion of the work.
- To remove the grade of I, a student does not register for the course again; instead, he or she arranges to submit incomplete or supplemental work to the original instructor of the course. When a student receives the grade of I and the incomplete grade is later removed, the grade point average is calculated on the basis of the new grade. If the I grade is not removed within the next semester enrolled, the grade of I is treated as an F (failure).

GPA Calculations
Students should know how to calculate their overall and semester grade point averages. The following example shows how to do it. Assume you are registered for 16 hours and receive the following grades in these courses:

- English 101: B
- Mathematics 126: A
- Geology 101: C
- Political Science 101: B
- Spanish 101: D
- Psychology 201: P

Academic Affairs
1. Multiply the credit by the grade value to get the grade points earned for each course.
2. Add the total grade points, in this case, 39.
3. Divide the total grade points earned by the total credit hours with a grade value. Remember that P grades have no grade value, so in this case, there are 15 credit hours for the GPA calculation: 39 divided by 15 = grade point average of 2.6.

D/F Repeat Policy
West Virginia University has a D/F repeat policy for undergraduate students who have not received their initial baccalaureate degree. If a student earns a D or F in a course at WVU or at any school in the WV State System and the course is taken no later than the semester or summer term in which the student completes the sixtieth hour (including any class in which a student earns a grade and transfer classes), the student may “D/F repeat” that course. Academic advisors assist students with completing the appropriate form, which should be filed during the semester in which the student is repeating the course. The course can be repeated only at West Virginia University, Potomac State College of WVU, or WVU Institute of Technology. Students have only one opportunity to improve their original grades under the D/F repeat policy. The new grade becomes the grade that counts toward the student’s cumulative GPA and credit hours for graduation, even if the repeated course grade is lower than the original grade in the course. The D/F repeat policy will be enacted anytime an eligible course is repeated.

When a course is D/F repeated, the following procedure occurs:
1. The original grade is disregarded for the purpose of determining the overall GPA; it is marked as excluded (E) in the semester that the student originally took the course.
2. The original grade is not deleted from the student’s permanent record.
3. The second grade is entered on the student’s transcript and marked as included (I) in the semester that you repeated the course.
4. Grades of Unforgivable F (UF) are not eligible for D/F repeat. Such a failure is indicated on the student’s permanent record by an UF and is calculated in the GPA.

Academic Forgiveness Policy
See “Enrollment Services” Section for details.

Auditing Courses
An auditor may register for courses and must pay full fees but does not receive credit for the course. A student who audits a course must let one semester pass before enrolling in the same course for credit. A student may change his or her status from audit to grade or grade to audit only during the registration period. Attendance requirements for auditors are determined by the instructor of the course.

Course Overloads
Students may not enroll for more than 18 credit-hours of course work in any given semester without first receiving permission from the Dean of Academic Affairs.

Foundations Courses
Students who have inadequate backgrounds in those basic skills needed successfully to pursue college-level work may be required to take foundations courses in English or mathematics (ENGL 090 and MATH 021, 091, or 093). Credits for these courses are not counted in the hours required for graduation at Potomac State College and are not intended for transfer. These courses count toward athletic eligibility and financial aid. These courses are designed to give the under-prepared student an opportunity to succeed in college.
Based on placement scores, students may be required to enroll in one or more foundations courses. Refer to the “Enrollment Services” portion of this catalog for additional information concerning placement guidelines.

Grade Reports and Distribution

Grade reports are confidential reports from faculty to students indicating the student’s academic progress in a given course. Semester and summer term grades are final and are entered on the student’s permanent record. Mid-semester grades, given in each semester but not in summer sessions, are not final and are not entered on the student’s permanent record.

Classification of Students and Hours Carried

Students are classified as freshmen, sophomores, juniors, or seniors. These classifications are based upon the number of hours completed. The classifications are as follows:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Classification</th>
<th>Hours</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Freshman</td>
<td>1-28 hours, inclusive</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sophomore</td>
<td>29-58 hours, inclusive</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Junior</td>
<td>59-88 hours, inclusive</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Senior</td>
<td>89 or more semester hours</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

The normal semester load for a full-time college student varies from 12 to 18 hours according to the curriculum selected. A college credit or semester hour represents the amount of work done in one recitation hour per week for the duration of a semester. As a rule, two to three hours of laboratory work are equivalent to one hour of recitation.

Military Leave Policy

Awarding Course Credit to Students Called to Serve in the Military (Updated July 28, 2010)

1. Students who withdraw from the College for military service up to and including the 12th week of the semester will receive a full refund of their fees and be administratively withdrawn from their classes. No course grades or credit will be awarded.

2. Students who leave the College for military service after the 12th week of the semester should work with the designated contact person, the Dean of Academic Affairs. The contact person will assist the student in reviewing the student’s eligibility for credit for their courses on a course-by-course basis with the instructors.

3. The contact person will work with the student’s instructors to gather grade information for the student. If the course in not in the student’s home college, the contact person can work with his/her counterpart in the appropriate college. Several outcomes are possible:

   1. If the course is substantially complete and the student has done passing work, the student should receive the grade earned at that time. It is anticipated that this would be the outcome in the majority of the courses. NOTE: Students who receive orders with sufficient advance notice are expected to notify their professors of their upcoming deployment date and meet with their professors to come to an agreement on what regular course assignments they can reasonably complete prior to the deployment date (the details of this arrangement should be included in a contract initialed by both the instructor and the student; contracts must be placed in the student’s file.) Students should not be penalized for not completing assignments, quizzes, tests or exams due after their deployment date.

   2. If a critical competency has yet to be covered in a competency-based course, the instructor should award a grade of “I” and work with the student to develop a plan to complete that critical part of the course. To alleviate confusion at a later date, the plan should be in writing and signed by both the instructor and the student. Students called to active duty for a relatively short duration that includes exam week may arrange for an “I” with provision to make up the final exam after completing the period of duty.

   3. If the student chooses to withdraw from the course, the contact person will work with the appropriate University Office to provide an administrative withdrawal.
Leave for Military Drill
Some students at the College choose to serve in the military while pursuing their degrees. West Virginia University is a “Veteran Friendly” institution and recognizes its obligations to our students who serve in the military. Although there is a university expectation that all students will attend all of their classes, the choice to serve in the military where two week training sessions may be mandatory should not negatively impede academic progress. The following section outlines the appropriate steps to follow should you miss class due to call ups for military service training during a semester. A typical call up is 1-2 weeks.

If you are a student with the potential for being called to military training during the course of the semester or academic year, we recommend that you review the syllabi for specific attendance policies for each course prior to the beginning of every semester. In addition, we strongly encourage you to meet with or have substantial email contact with all of your course professors and/or instructors no later than the Monday of the first week of class in order to address the class attendance policy and the impact a short-term military leave will have on your ability to succeed in the class for the semester. Any agreements between you and your professors should be agreed upon by the end of the first week of class.

In the rare case that an unresolved issue arises due to absences from a course because of military obligation, the West Virginia University process for final grade appeal is outlined under the “Final Grade Appeal Procedures” in the West Virginia University Undergraduate Catalog.

In the spirit of WVU, faculty make every effort to allow students who are members of the Armed forces to make up test and assignments that may be missed during the semester if it can be proven that the student was called up for military training; and if missing the coursework will not irreversibly impact the students’ ability to master the subject matter in question within the terms of the semester.

Commitment to Assessment
West Virginia University is committed to academic quality and has developed a plan for a comprehensive assessment of student learning outcomes. The plan enables the University to measure the improvement of the quality of academic programs of instruction.

At Potomac State College, an Assessment Council coordinates college-level assessment programs.

Honor Society
The Sigma Phi Omega Honor Society was established in 1923. Membership in the society is considered to be a high distinction. It is restricted to students who earn a GPA of 3.0 or better with no failing grades during the grading periods and be actively involved in two campus organizations.

Potomac State College Honors Program
The Potomac State College Honors Program provides a program of honors courses that will apply toward general education and/or core requirements. Enrollment in the Honors Program is by invitation only.

Students who complete at least nine hours of honors credits are designated as Honors Scholars when graduating with an AA or AAS degree. Students who complete at least 18 hours of honors credits and fulfill additional requirements are designated as Honors Scholars when graduating with a BAS degree.

Students in the Honors Program may transfer into the West Virginia University Honors Program in Morgantown if they meet the requirements and choose to change campuses from Potomac State College.

Provost’s and Dean’s Lists
Full-time students whose academic accomplishments are of significant quality to merit special recognition are placed on either the Provost’s List or the Dean’s List. To be placed on the Provost’s List, a student must be enrolled for at least 12 credit hours of graded courses, excluding courses in which any grade of Audit, Pass, or Incomplete is recorded, and must earn a grade-point average of 3.700 or higher. To be placed on the Dean’s List, a student must be enrolled for at least 12 credit hours of graded courses, and must maintain a grade-point average of 3.000 to 3.699 for the semester which he or she is enrolled. A student is not eligible for either list if the grade recorded for any course is D, F, I or NR.

Provost’s and Dean’s Scholars
Upon graduation, any student whose cumulative grade-point average is 3.700 or higher will be designated as a Provost’s Scholar. Any student who earns a cumulative grade-point average of 3.000 to 3.699 will be named Dean’s Scholar.

Student Attendance

Importance of Class Attendance: At West Virginia University, class attendance contributes significantly to academic success. Students who attend classes regularly tend to earn higher grades and have higher passing rates in courses. Excessive absences may jeopardize students’ grades or even their ability to continue in their courses.

There is a strong correlation between regular class attendance and academic success. Faculty are strongly encouraged to require attendance in all 100-level classes.

Attendance Policies: Instructors must set attendance policies that are appropriate for the goals and instructional strategies of their courses. Instructors may include attendance records in determining the final course grade. All attendance policies that affect students’ grades must be announced in writing within the first week of class. Moreover, instructors are responsible for keeping accurate enrollment records and for keeping accurate attendance records when attendance is used in grading. Attendance policies thought to violate the statement on student attendance should first be discussed with the instructor, then with the department chair, and finally the college dean, if necessary.

Class Absences: Students who are absent from class for any reason are responsible for all missed work and for contacting their instructors promptly, unless the instructors’ policies require otherwise. However, instructors cannot require documentation of student illness from any medical provider as part of an attendance policy, since medical conditions are confidential and frequently not verifiable.

Make-up Examinations: Students absent from regularly scheduled examinations because of authorized University activities will have the opportunity to take them at an alternate time. Such make-up examinations should be of comparable difficulty to the original examination.

Students in courses with regularly scheduled evening examinations shall have the opportunity to make up these examinations if they miss them in order to attend a regularly scheduled class that meets at the same time. Such make-up examinations should be of comparable difficulty to the original examination.

Attendance at a regularly scheduled evening examination will not excuse a student from a regularly scheduled class that meets at the same time as the examination.

Days of Special Concern: Instructors are urged not to schedule examinations or field trips on “Days of Special Concern” that are identified in the Academic Calendar.

Finals
A final exam schedule will be developed each fall and spring semester by the Office of Academic Affairs. Final examinations for the summer sessions are given on the last day of classes.

If enrolled in a section of a multi-section course, student’s may be required to take the departmental final examination given during the regular final examination period.
Last Week of Classes
Practical laboratory tests, make-up examinations, and regularly scheduled short quizzes are the only tests permitted for day classes during the five days of classes preceding the beginning of final exams. Evening classes have their final exams on the last meeting of the class preceding the final exam schedule for day classes.

Advisory System/Academic Advisers
The Dean of Academic Affairs exercises general oversight of the academic work of the students. Each student will be assigned an adviser whose duty is to assist students in preparing schedules and to be available for consultation throughout the semester. Students are responsible for their own academic well being, including knowing their scholastic standing as it relates to the published regulations and standards of Potomac State College of WVU. Student are responsible for their college plan, especially preparation for transfer or preparation for migration to the Morgantown campus. Students are encouraged to meet with their academic adviser when questions arise.

Academic Success Center
The Academic Success Center is located on the ground floor of the Mary F. Shipper Library. Professional tutoring and peer tutoring services are available. The center also includes a computer lab and study areas.

Rights & Responsibilities
1. Each student shall have the right to grades based upon academic performance and requirements. If a student feels the final grade reflects a capricious, arbitrary, or prejudiced academic evaluation, or reflects discrimination based on race, color, creed, sex, national origin, political affiliation, handicap, veteran status, sexual orientation, or age, the student has the right to appeal.
2. Each student shall have the right to appeal academic penalties.
3. Each student shall have access to the College catalog and Web site in which academic program requirements are described (e.g., required courses, total credit requirements, residence requirements, special program requirements, minimum grade-point average, probation standards, professional standards, etc.).
4. Each student shall have the right to receive from the instructor written descriptions of content and requirements for any course in which he or she is enrolled (e.g., attendance expectations, laboratory requirements, and special requirements including field trips and costs, grading standards and procedures, professional standards, etc.).
5. The instructor of each course is responsible for assigning grades to students enrolled in the course, consistent with the academic rights set out above.
6. Each student shall receive grade reports of academic progress at midterm and at the end of each academic term.

Probation and Suspension
The college makes every effort to encourage its students to achieve a high standard of academic performance. Because of excessive unexcused absences from class, academic dishonesty, failure to achieve an acceptable Grade Point Average, or other irregularities, students may be subject to academic probation or academic suspension.

The Dean of Academic Affairs, faculty advisers, the Office of Student Affairs, the Office of Enrollment Services, and others are available to assist the student with solutions to problems. In the final analysis, however, the student must assume responsibility for any academic deficiencies or irregularities. Any student whose cumulative grade-point average is 2.0 or higher is in good academic standing in the College. Every degree requires a minimum grade-point average of 2.0 for graduation.

Students are placed on academic probation or academic suspension by the Dean of Academic Affairs and will be formally notified in writing.
Academic Probation Regulations
1. The list of students on academic probation is compiled by the Dean of Academic Affairs at the end of each regular semester. Probation automatically applies when a student does not have a cumulative grade-point average of at least 2.0 (C average), unless the student is to be suspended.
2. A student who is placed on academic probation may continue to enroll on a full-time basis.
3. A student who is not suspended will be removed from academic probation only after the grade-point deficiency has been made up and the overall grade-point average is 2.0 or better.

Academic Suspension Regulations
1. The list of students on academic suspension that is compiled annually at the conclusion of the spring semester applies only to those students who have not obtained the required minimum cumulative Grade Point Average.
2. Normally, students will be suspended only at the end of the spring semester. However, the Dean of Academic Affairs may suspend a student at any other time of the year if the student’s cumulative Grade Point Average is below the required minimum.
3. Any student who in the fall semester has attempted ten or more credits and failed to earn a cumulative Grade Point Average of at least 0.50 may be suspended for the spring semester.
4. Suspension is for one semester. If a student has been on suspension for one semester, he or she may apply for full-time readmission.
5. A suspended student who is re-admitted under the provisions mentioned previously will be placed on academic probation.
6. Upon written application, the student who has been on suspension will be re-admitted to the College, with the terms of re-admission noted by the Director of Enrollment Services in accordance with established College policy. A student who is academically suspended may appeal, within 10 calendar days of the date of receiving notification of academic suspension, by writing to the Dean of Academic Affairs. If the appeal is denied by the Dean of Academic Affairs, the student may appeal to the Campus Provost.
7. A student who has been suspended for academic deficiencies and who takes courses at other institutions during the period of suspension cannot automatically transfer such credit toward a degree at PSC/WVU upon readmission to the College. Students are not eligible for readmission if they earn less than a 2.0 at other institutions while on suspension from PSC/WVU. After one semester of satisfactory performance (C average or better on a minimum of 12 credit hours earned during a regular semester or during the summer sessions) the appropriate transfer credit will be entered into the student’s record.
8. Readmission of students who have been suspended for a second time will be for one semester and subject to conditions established by the Dean of Academic Affairs.

Students failing to obtain the minimum cumulative Grade Point Averages specified in the following table are subject to academic suspension.

Final Grade Appeal Procedures (Not Involving Charges of Academic Dishonesty), including Dismissal from an Academic Program

Students have the right to appeal final course grades which they believe reflect a capricious, arbitrary, or prejudiced academic evaluation, or reflect discrimination based on race, color, creed, sex, national origin, political affiliation, handicap, veteran status, sexual orientation, or age. The grade appealed shall remain in effect until the appeal procedure is completed or the problem resolved. This procedure provides a mechanism whereby a student may appeal a failing grade or a grade low enough to cause the student to be dismissed from some program or to require the repetition of a course. Grade appeals that do not meet this classification are not precluded.

Step 1. The student shall discuss the complaint with the instructor involved prior to the mid-semester of the succeeding regular semester, whether the student is enrolled or not. If the two parties are unable to resolve the matter satisfactorily, if the instructor is not available, or if the nature of the complaint makes discussion with the instructor inappropriate, the student shall notify the chairperson of the instructor’s division (or, if none, the academic dean). The chairperson or academic dean shall assume the role of an informal facilitator and assist in resolution attempts. If the problem is not resolved within five academic days from when the complaint is first lodged, the student may proceed directly to Step 2.

Step 2. The student must prepare and sign a document that states the facts constituting the basis for the appeal within five academic days from when the original complaint was lodged. Copies of this document shall be given to the instructor and to the instructor’s chairperson (or, if none, to the academic dean). If, within five academic days of receipt of the student’s signed document, the chairperson does not resolve the problem to the satisfaction of the student, the student will forward the complaint to the instructor’s academic dean (see Step 3).

Step 3. Within five academic days of receipt of the complaint, the academic dean shall make a determination regarding the grade, making any recommendation for a grade change to the instructor involved. If the instructor involved does not act on the academic dean’s recommendation, or if the student disagrees with the decision of the academic dean, the academic dean will refer the case to a representative committee, appointed by the academic dean, for final resolution. This committee shall consist of three or more faculty members, including at least one person outside the instructor’s division.

1. Upon receiving an appeal, the committee will notify in writing the faculty member involved of the grade challenge, which shall include a statement of the facts and evidence to be presented by the student.
2. The committee shall provide to the faculty member involved and the student making the appeal written notification of their right to appear at a hearing to be held before the college representative committee, together with the notice of the date, time, and place of the hearing.
3. The administrative procedure is not adversarial in nature; the formal rules of evidence do not apply.
4. The final decision of this committee shall be forwarded to the instructor and to the academic dean. If the decision requires a change of grade, the instructor shall take action in accordance with the committee’s decision.
5. If the instructor does not act within five academic days, the academic dean shall make any necessary grade adjustment.
6. In the case of grade appeals, the dean functions as the campus provost’s designee; therefore, implementation of this decision shall end the appeal procedure.

Appeal Procedures for Cases Involving Academic Dishonesty, i.e., Plagiarism, Cheating, and Academic Fraud, Including the Grade of Unforgiveable F (UF)

Academic dishonesty, a serious offense, is defined in West Virginia University Student Conduct Code (Board of Governors Policy 31), which also describes the appeal procedure. Both students and faculty members are responsible for reporting cases of academic dishonesty. Students who suspect academic dishonesty should notify the examination proctor, instructor of the course, or any other appropriate person.
An Unforgiveable F (UF) is a University sanction levied as a result of a violation of the Student Conduct Code Article III (B) 1. Thus, the appeal process for a UF as well as for other cases involving academic dishonesty is different than a standard grade appeal (see above), which follows academic channels that end with a decision by the dean of the college involved. This sanction can be given only after a student has gone through the University student conduct process.

Process to Initiate a Charge of Academic Dishonesty
To initiate and process a charge of academic dishonesty, including plagiarism, cheating, and academic fraud, and/or to begin the process of issuing an Unforgiveable F, the instructor must do the following:

1. Notify the student in writing of the charge and the penalty and schedule a conference within five academic days of discovering the infraction.

2. Meet with the student to discuss the issue, to review all relevant materials, and to complete the Academic Dishonesty Form as soon as possible but no longer than five academic days following the discovery of the violation.

   If the student accepts responsibility for both the charge and the sanctions, he or she signs the Academic Dishonesty Form, and the case is closed. Within five academic days of resolution of the case, faculty should make three copies of the Academic Dishonesty Form: one for the student, one for faculty records, and one for the Office of Student Judicial Affairs.

   If the student does not accept responsibility as charged, he or she may appeal to the chair of the division. If the student and chair reach a resolution, the chair should make three copies of the Academic Dishonesty Form: one for the student, one for departmental records, and one for the Office of Student Judicial Affairs. These copies should be distributed within five academic days of resolution of the case.

   If the student and the chair do not reach a resolution, the student may appeal to the Student Conduct Board. This appeal must be initiated within five academic days of the student’s meeting with the chair.

3. If the student appeals to the Student Conduct Board, a panel of three faculty and two students or any odd number with faculty comprising the majority will be convened, the case will be examined, and a decision will be reached.

4. If the student disagrees with the decision of the Student Conduct Board, he or she may appeal to the campus provost, whose decision is final.
Degree Programs

Baccalaureate Degree Programs
The Bachelor of Applied Science (B.A.S.) is offered at Potomac State College of WVU. Two emphases are available: Business Management and Criminal Justice. Students must have completed an Associate of Applied Science (A.A.S.) degree in a related subject to be admitted to a B.A.S. program.

The West Virginia University Regents B.A. (R.B.A.) is available to qualified students attending Potomac State College of WVU. Adult students wishing to enter the R.B.A. degree program should consult the R.B.A. Coordinator.

Associate Degree Programs
For each major, a recommended two-year sequence of courses is provided. Students who follow this plan will complete the major in the traditional time frame; i.e., two years for associate degrees. The curriculum sequence is designed to permit the completion of course prerequisites and to ensure access to courses not available every semester.

For students who are out of sequence due to a lighter credit load or delayed due to developmental course requirements, faculty advisers are a vital resource to ensure completion of graduation requirements. This catalog is another resource.

The Associate of Arts (A.A.) degree is designed for students who are interested in a career for which a bachelor’s and/or master’s degree would be an eventual requirement.

Potomac State College Associate of Arts (A.A.) degree programs are specifically designed for transfer to baccalaureate degree programs at West Virginia University but generally involve the undergraduate course work essential to degree programs at other four-year institutions.

The Associate of Applied Science (A.A.S.) degree offers students the opportunity to gain the technical and occupational skills needed for employment. Although the A.A.S. is not a transfer degree, some four-year colleges accept a portion of A.A.S. degree credits as part of a bachelor’s degree.

Some A.A.S. degree courses are offered only at Potomac State College and will not apply to a West Virginia University baccalaureate degree. These courses are identified in the Course Descriptions as “not a WVU parallel course”.

General Requirements for Graduation
All students must meet the following general requirements to graduate from Potomac State College, regardless of the program of study selected:

1. Complete a specified minimum of 60 semester hours of college credit for two-year associate degree programs. Some majors require more than 60 credit-hours for the associate degree;
2. Complete all required courses outlined in the degree program;
3. Earn a minimum cumulative grade-point average of C (2.0);
4. Satisfy the General Education Curriculum (GEC) requirements as applicable to specific degrees in the prescribed courses of study;
5. Submit an application for graduation to the Office of Academic Affairs on or before the announced deadline for submission of graduation applications during the first month of the semester or term in which the student expects to graduate.

Students are advised that to depart from the prescribed program outline of study might delay graduation. Any departure from an outlined program of study or change in major field of study must have prior written approval of the Dean for Curriculum and Instruction. Students may request waiver of a graduation requirement under provisions of the current catalog and with consent of the Dean for Curriculum and Instruction.

WVUe 191
All students entering WVU as freshmen or as transfer students with fewer than 29 hours must take WVUe 191, First-Year Seminar, in their first semester. Those who do not pass the course must re-enroll for the subsequent semester until they earn a passing grade. This course fulfills one hour toward GEC Objective Six.

In certain majors, alternative courses are acceptable. These will be identified for students by their advisers. Alternative courses offered at Potomac State College of WVU include AGRL 111, ENGR 199, HONR 199, and FOR 101.

Residence Requirements
Transfer students who have completed all undergraduate work in another school in the West Virginia system of higher education must complete either the last 15 hours of work at Potomac State College or at least 18 hours of work at PSC of which 8 of the last 16 hours must be on campus. Transfer students whose undergraduate work has been completed outside of the West Virginia system of higher education must complete a total of 45 hours or at least the last 15 hours of work in residence at PSC. Student’s may also be required to earn up to 8 hours in your major field regardless of the number of hours or the nature of the course transferred.

Students who have completed 31 credits or more at Potomac State College may apply credits subsequently earned at West Virginia University’s Morgantown campus toward an Associate Degree at Potomac State College. All General Requirements for Graduation at Potomac State College must be met.

Second Associate Degree
A student who has received one associate degree and wishes to receive a second associate degree must satisfactorily complete enough additional credits so that the total, including all acceptable credits earned at Potomac State College of WVU and elsewhere, is at least 15 unduplicated semester hours more than the number required for the first associate degree. All requirements, core and otherwise, of the second associate degree program must be satisfied. A second associate degree cannot be awarded to a student who has not met the Potomac State College of WVU residence requirement.

A student who wishes to receive simultaneously two associate degrees must satisfactorily complete a minimum of 15 credits beyond requirements of the initial associate degree and meet all requirements of both degree programs.

Transfer of Credit to Potomac State College of WVU
Credits and grades for all college-level courses from institutions within the West Virginia state system of higher education may be transferable towards an associate degree. For institutions outside the West Virginia system and West Virginia private colleges and universities, beginning Spring 2012, grades and credits are transferable for college-level courses. See http://admissions.wvu.edu/admissions/university-requirements/transfer_equivalency and or consult the Enrollment Services Office.
General Education Curriculum (GEC)

The Purpose of General Education

THE PURPOSE OF THE GENERAL EDUCATION CURRICULUM

WVU aims to provide students with a foundation of skills and knowledge necessary to reason clearly, communicate effectively, and contribute substantively to society. The General Education Curriculum (GEC) is designed to ensure that students meet these goals through inquiry-based learning across the disciplines. In conjunction with a major field, and in consultation with their advisors, students will design programs of study that satisfy the GEC Objectives. The learning objectives reflect the fact that, in an increasingly global, interdependent world, it is crucial that students can:

- Demonstrate mastery of skills so that they are able to evaluate contexts, effectively communicate with others, and work effectively as an individual and team member to solve problems in today's society;
- Synthesize what they have learned in order to effectively and efficiently apply their knowledge to new contexts;
- Recognize and respond to the need for participation in one's community through civic engagement;
- Understand and acknowledge cultural differences and learn to interact constructively with people from different cultures;
- Identify and evaluate a range of viewpoints on social and cultural topics, so that they may resolve issues of personal and professional ethics.

The GEC strives to help students to become thoughtful participants in a democratic society, and to achieve the intellectual integration and awareness they will need to meet changes and challenges in their personal, social, and professional lives.

Policies Governing this Curriculum

1. Students will take between 41 and 43 credits in this curriculum.
2. Most courses fulfill two GEC objectives. In consultation with the advisor, students will choose which one of those objectives a particular course will fulfill.
3. GEC objectives must be met by all students following the guidelines on the Office of the University Registrar web site: http://registrar.wvu.edu/current_students/general_education_curriculum. Students may fulfill GEC objectives with any courses that are approved as meeting a GEC objective during the semester in which they take the course (as designated in BANNER), following the guidelines approved by the Faculty Senate.
4. Although programs may recommend particular courses for their majors to meet GEC objectives, they may not specify that only these courses may be used to meet GEC objectives.
5. Students may fulfill up to three of the GEC objectives 2 through 9 (including 2A, 2B lab, 2B other, and 2C) with courses in one subject area (as defined by a common prefix, such as POLS or SOCA) for a total of nine (9) credit hours. Students may fulfill up to two GEC objectives 2 through 9 with courses in each of any other subject areas.
